Call to bakers

We are having the church open at various times for the WW1 commemoration - please see notice below. It would be really nice to be able to serve some home made cakes. Could anyone offer some baking?

World War One Commemoration

St Nicholas' Church's commemoration of the end of the war begins on Saturday 3rd November. There will be a digital display, an exhibition, live and recorded music and children's activities. Please come and see how the war affected our church and the local community. Share your own family's memories too, over a cup of tea.

Sat 3rd November 10.30am-12pm and 2-4pm

Sun 4th November 1.30-4pm

Sat 10th November 10-30am-12pm and 2-4pm

Church is open for heritage as usual on Tuesday mornings and Thursday afternoons.

Christmas Market 17th November 11am - 3pm.

HELP? ...we are looking for volunteers to assist in:

- Advertising-via all forms of Social Media
- Distribution of flyers to shop premises for window display;
- Helping at the Welcome desk in church
- Helping with a raffle and donating prizes
- To set up and clear away on the day
- Help in the kitchen with snacks and refreshments

So please let's work together: Save the Date for Saturday 17th November 2018 from 11-3pm and help or attend "The St Nicholas Church Christmas Market"

Christmas Workshop

Sat 1st Dec 2-4pm: A practical session learning how to make a Christmas wreath for your front door, cost £20 and includes all materials. Email lesleyutley@hotmail.co.uk to book your place.
